

Deer Creek Basketry Guild's Member-Only Basketry Workshop

“Cart Basket”

Class Teacher: Joanne Sheriff

Saturday, March 9, 2024

9:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m. (approximately)

Class Size Limited to 12 Students; Register Early!

Description: Please read carefully!

- The cart class is for weavers who have experience weaving baskets. Intermediate to Advanced weavers will find this basket to be unique and a bit challenging.
- Due to its shape and size, weavers may find it easier to stand for much of the class.
- The basket may not be finished at the end of class, but you will have all the necessary info to complete it at home.

Cost: You have two cost options:

Option 1: $90 –

this pays for the cart, the wooden base (which will be attached to the cart), the spokes which will be glued into the base, the written pattern and teacher's instructions.

You will have to bring all the reed to weave the cart to class. The sizes and amounts of reed will be given to you if you register for this option.

Option 2: $145-

This price includes all of the above plus all the necessary reed, both natural and dyed, to weave your cart. It will be packaged as a kit for you. You will be given some color choices at the class.

Questions regarding the technical aspects of the class and/or cost options, please contact Joanne at 443-350-1611; ssheriff@zoominternet.net.
